The harvest is ready, and now Jesus invites His disciples to go and carry His mission to all people. When Jesus commissioned seventy of His disciples to go on mission, He gave them the special instructions, and gave a vision of a vast field that is ready to be harvested for the kingdom of God. They must go and serve others without guile (free of deceit and craftiness), full of charity (selfless giving in love for the good of others), peace, and simplicity. They must give their full attention to the proclamation of God's kingdom and not be diverted by other lesser things. They must travel light, only take what is essential, and leave behind whatever would distract them, in order to concentrate on the task of preaching the word of God. Their ministry is not a job, but a service, not for what they can get out of it, but for what they can give freely to others, without expecting reward or payment. He tells them to adopt the poverty of spirit and move on with trust in God towards the right direction and focus on the goal of saving souls. He also makes them aware of the challenges that will come their way. Jesus ends His instructions with a warning: If people reject God's invitation and refuse His word, then they bring condemnation on themselves.

In like manner, the word of God is sown in our hearts when we hear His Word, to accept it with trust and obedience, and then share the abundant fruit of God's word with others. The harvest Jesus had in mind was not only the gathering of the people of Israel, but all the peoples (and nations) of the world.

God gives us His life-giving word that we may have abundant life and joy in Him. When God gives us His word, there comes with it the great responsibility to respond. Indifference will not do. We are either for or against God in how we respond to His word. He wills to work in, and through, each one of us for His own glory. God shares His all-powerful word with us, and he commissions us to speak it boldly and plainly to others.

Blessings, Fr. Robin

Prays for the continued health of all expectant moms, as they move closer to the birth of their baby. With the medical advancements of our day, it is possible for a baby born at this 6 month mark to survive, although medical care will be necessary for quite some time. At 23 weeks, the brain is approximately 100 grams (the adult brain is approximately 1400 grams) and will grow significantly in the coming week. Our little one is now about 13" long.

Automatic Tithing to Blessed Sacrament

If you previously authorized Blessed Sacrament to debit your checking account so that you could automatically tithe each month, and your donations have not been coming out of your checking account, PLEASE STOP IN OUR OFFICE to complete a new authorization agreement for ACH debits. We had a SNAFU at the church back in February, and some people's automatic giving was deleted from our system. We really appreciate your financial support of our parish! Also, if this is something you haven't been doing, but you would like to give to the church automatically, we would welcome you completing a form, as well. If you have any questions, please contact Lidia Escalante at 308-384-0532, Ext. 202.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT!
