In His discourse at the Last Supper, Jesus prepares His disciples for His imminent departure to return to His Father by exhorting them to prove their love for Him through their loyalty and obedience to His word. He promises them the abiding instruction and consolation of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit helps us to grow in the knowledge of God and His great love. The Spirit enables us to experience the love of God and to be assured of the Lord's abiding presence with us. The Holy Spirit also opens our ears to hear and understand the word of God. Jesus also speaks of peace, He gives His own peace as His gift to His disciples. It is not the same kind of peace that the world thinks of; rather, the Peace of Christ is more than the absence of trouble. This peace is serenity of mind, tranquility of soul, simplicity of heart, and the bond of love and fellowship of charity. The peace of Jesus teaches us to love because it does not know how to get angry, or to extol itself, or become inflated with pride. It is humble to everyone, possessing rest and tranquility within itself. It includes everything which makes for our highest good. The world's approach to peace is avoidance of trouble and a refusal to face unpleasant things. Jesus offers the peace which conquers our fears and anxieties. Nothing can take us from the peace and joy of Jesus Christ. No sorrow or grief, no danger, no suffering can make it less. We attain this peace through the gift and work of the Holy Spirit, who dwells within us. The Lord Jesus shows us how to yield our passions of anger, fear, and pride to Him so we can receive His gift of peace. The Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness and strengthens us with His gifts and supernatural virtues which enable us to live as wise and holy disciples of Christ.

Anyone who has received this peace should keep it, and share with others, and one who has destroyed or lost it should look for it. When the peace of Christ is exercised by us, it is brought to perfection by Christ.

Peace be with you all, Amen. Fr. Robin
